**Healthcare Provider level CPR certification (aka BLS Provider) is required to become an EMR. Participants must provide a copy of their current BLS to the Course Director prior to the first class session. Those that are not currently BLS certified, or will expire within 3 months after the course completion date, will need to complete that training. An AHA BLS Provider course is available Wednesday, September 7th at Stayton Fire, 1730-2130. Cost is $60. All participants must have the required AHA BLS Manual (© 2020) prior to class. A loaner copy can be provided upon request & returned after class, or agencies can provide them for their personnel. Registration link is provided with the EMR course registration form.*
